The following Instructional Memorandum No. 14—51 CCI (General) issued by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India, regarding the import of Built-up cars into India, is republished for general information.

Instructional Memorandum.

"Reference Instructional Memorandum No. 13-CCI (General), dated the 27th August 1951, on the above subject.

The following further decisions have been reached:—

(1) The import of Estate Cars, Station Wagons, Jeeps and similar vehicles may be allowed as baggage from dollar countries also as in the case of soft currency countries.

(2) The import of buses and transport vehicles should not be allowed as baggage whether from soft currency countries or dollar countries.

(3) Import of motor vehicles need not be confined to one unit permit per family. A passenger and his wife may both bring a car from dollar area provided each of them satisfies the conditions regarding residence, ownership, etc., in respect of the vehicle which they are bringing out.

(4) The concession of bringing a car and a motor cycle should be treated as mutually exclusive. In other words no passenger can bring both.

(5) No individual should be allowed to bring a motor vehicle oftener than once in two years. For this purpose it would suffice if a declaration to this effect that he had not brought a car within the preceding two years is obtained from the passenger."
